

Put Yourself in the Driver’s Seat

Read and answer each of the following questions.

1. Do you want to learn how to drive a car? Why or why not?

2. Do you think that talking and learning about being distracted now will help you when you start to drive? Why or why not?

3. Do you think you might be tempted to text or look at your phone when you drive? If so, under what circumstances?

4. Imagine that you are driving and looking at your phone. A passenger in the car tells you that he or she feels nervous when you use your phone while driving. How do you think you would respond?
